Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photogravure views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIGNED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

IVORITES ENJOY A SMOKER

New Social Rooms Opened with a Feast of Music and Tobacco—Work to Begin at Once on the New No. 19 School.

Robert Morris lodge, Order of American True Ivories, opened their new social rooms last evening by giving a smoker. About 100 young men were present. There are two rooms, and these are finely furnished. In a corner of the parlor is a piano, and this was decorated with chrysanthemums and palms.

The evening was devoted to games, music and speechmaking. The Ivories quartette, consisting of David Owen, Will Reynolds, Emerson Owen and Walter Jones, rendered several plantation melodies. Emerson Owen recited his latest production, entitled "The Murderer." The piece is a soliloquy of the murderer in his cell, and it was rendered in a realistic manner. Songs were rendered by Professor William Evans, Morris Thomas and Philip Warren. The members also sang, accompanied by the Ivories quartette. The work and the nature of the meeting were given by Councilman E. E. Robathan, City Engineer Joseph Phillips, W. Gaylord Thomas, John J. Davis, John M. Harris, William R. Lewis and John H. Farr. The meeting was a most successful one, and the rooms are now opened for the young men.

The New School.

The work of erecting the new No. 19 school will be commenced by Contractors John Benors & Son in a few days. The building will be located on Rebecca avenue, near Jackson street. Twelve rooms are to accommodate the pupils of the several grades.

Four additional teachers will be required. Six teachers will be taken from the old building and two from the Garfield avenue mission, which is now used as an overflow. The building will be completed as soon as possible.

Married in New York.

Dr. P. F. Moylan, of South Main avenue, and Miss Florence Fairchild, daughter of George Fairchild, of Dalton, were married in New York city on Wednesday afternoon.

The marriage was a quietly arranged affair, as none but the near relatives knew the purpose of the trip. After spending a short time in New York city, they will go to Washington and other cities, and return here next week. Dr. Moylan is well known here and has a large practice. His bride was a former resident here, and has a large circle of friends. They will make their future home on North Summer avenue.

William Powell Dead.

William Powell, a respected resident of this side, died at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday evening after a two weeks illness of typhoid fever. Mr. Powell was born in Wales and was 73 years of age. He was employed in the Hyde Park mines and is survived by a widow and one child, William.

He was a member of the Independent Order of Red Men and the Knights of the Golden Eagle, of Williamsport; Court Lackawanna, Ancient Order of Foresters, of this city. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, and Rev. Peter Roberts, of Olyphant. Interment in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Brief Notes of Interest.

P. M. Eagen, of Chestnut street, is Robinson street is covered with eight inches of mud.

Miss Ray Williams, of North Summer avenue, is visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre.

The choir of the Jackson Street Baptist church will meet this evening to rehearse Christmas music.

Jacob Jones, of Fourteenth street, employed as an engineer at the Hampton mines, announces himself as a candidate for common council from the Second district of the Fifteenth ward.

The members of Court Pride of Lackawanna, Ancient Order of Foresters, will meet on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Morgan's hall to attend the funeral of their late brother, William Powell.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Plymouth Congregational church will hold a fair and festival in the church chapel on Dec. 4, 5 and 6. The object is to raise money to liquidate the church debt. They will display many choice articles for sale. A festival will be held each evening.

The funeral of J. E. Kresge, of the race of Ninth street, who died on Wednesday evening from pneumonia, will take place this afternoon from his late home. He will be removed on the 12:30 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for Stroudsburg, where interment will be made. The Improved Order of Heptasophs will attend.

NORTH END NOTES.

Wade M. Finn, of Court street, and Providence road, is repairing his residence.

A large number of young people gathered at the North Main Avenue Baptist church last evening, when they started their winter's course of reading. They read portions of Julius Caesar by Shakespeare.

The Bohemian club held their monthly banquet at the residence of Bernard Clark, on William street, Wednesday evening. An excellent menu was prepared by Thomas J. Reese. Music was furnished by the Symphony Mandolin and Guitar club, also instrumental and vocal music by the club members.

Miss Lavina Dimmick gave an entertainment last evening at the residence of E. C. Dimmick, on Sanderson avenue, for the benefit of the free library on the corner of Wyoming avenue and Green Ridge street. A very large number were present. Miss Florence Ham, of Honesdale, a reader and elocutionist of great merit, Mrs. George Du P. Dimmick, Eugene Ham and Professor Con-antorganist of St. Luke's church, took part.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church held a conundrum tea in the church parlors last evening, when supper was served to about 125 people. At each plate was placed a conundrum with a conundrum attached, and two prizes given to the two answering the most of them. Miss Kate Brader won the first prize, which was a handsome large red chrysanthemum, named W. W. Cole, and Mrs. George A. Homer, the second prize, which was a small white L. C. non chrysanthemum, both of which came from the hot house of G. H. Clark & Co.

B. S. Myers, of Church avenue, a brakeman on the Delaware and Hudson railroad, fell from his train near Yatesville, yesterday morning, cutting a deep gash in the back of his head about three inches long, and badly bruising his shoulder. He climbed up the embankment and was taken into a round house of the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern Railroad company, where his head was dressed. He then walked to the Yatesville depot. As soon as he was missed from the train the caboose was detached and after a search Myers was found in the Yatesville station. He arrived home about noon.

About 250 people took supper at the Presbyterian church parlors last evening, when the Ladies' Aid society gave their annual turkey supper. The parlors were handsomely decorated. Tables capable of seating sixty people at a time were spread in the main room and ice cream tables in one of the parlors at the side, which was handsomely decorated. In a corner was a booth trimmed with laurel branches, where flowers and lemonade were sold and by it booths where home-made candies and aprons made by the society were for sale. Great credit is due Mrs. Byron Winton, president of the society, for the success of the affair. It will be continued tonight.

DINMORE DOINGS.

Fresh oysters received daily at Palmer's market.

The Ladies' Missionary society held a meeting yesterday after their praise service.

Recognition services were held in the Baptist church yesterday afternoon and evening.

John Dowd, of Main street, left yesterday for New York, where he will spend a few days.

L. M. Stallard had the misfortune yesterday to get his finger pinched while at his work.

Rev. A. B. O'Neil, pastor of the Baptist church, will hold extra meetings, commencing Sunday, Nov. 25.

A sacred concert will be held at the Baptist church next Tuesday evening. Admission, adults, 25 cents; children, 10 cents.

George Robertson has the foundation laid for a new dwelling house on Fourth street. Christian Carvin, of Scranton, has the contract to erect the building.

Mrs. Fred Cook, of Port Richmond, Staten Island, who has been visiting her parents on Cherry street, left for her home yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her sister, Miss Jennie Palmer, and Miss Ida Doty.

The home of Miss Marion Kenney, of Butler street, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Wednesday evening. Those present were: Rev. J. C. Leacock, Philip Davis, William Wier, Thomas Keller, J. W. Hand, Will Lutz, Dr. Carry, R. H. Hicks, Will Young, Eugene Seigle, Charles Wetherell, Mrs. C. M. Seigle, Mrs. Manly, Mrs. Leitchman, Miss Luella Miller, Miss Grace, Engle, Miss Minnie Engle, Jennie Young, Louise Lutz, Katie Olson, Lizzie Wetherell, Maud Jackson, Margaret Townsend, Alice Spencer, Christa Fletcher, Florence Donly, Jennie Seigle, Nellie Seigle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ball and Dr. Knox, of Scranton. All present enjoyed a most delightful evening.

All who are interested in the work of temperance and know how to appreciate a good entertainment, should not fail to attend the next meeting of the Loyal Legion in Old Fellows' hall next Saturday evening at 7:45. One of the main features of the evening will be an address on temperance by Rev. Mr. Cooper, of Scranton, after which there will be a programme rendered by members of the legion, consisting of recitations and some splendid singing by the male quartette. The legion deserve great praise for the splendid free entertainments they are giving, as well as for the good they are accomplishing for the cause of temperance. Let the people of Scranton encourage them in their commendable work and greet them with a full house next Saturday evening. Free for all.

Mrs. Lindsay's Unique Entertainment.

Mrs. Richard Lindsay is organizing an unique entertainment in connection with the Lutheran Evangelical church, which, it is expected, will be held about Christmas time at the armory. The cantata, "The Flag of all Nations," will be produced by a large chorus of little children, dressed to represent all nationalities. At the conclusion of the entertainment tables will be provided for each nationality represented in the audience, and the visitors will be invited to partake of supper, which will be served by the little actors according to the nationality they represent. The little performers may be seen at rehearsal daily at the residence of Professor Lindsay, Mulberry street.

Discharged from Jail.

Clark Barber and George Ferris were yesterday discharged from the county jail, the bills against them having been ignored by the grand jury.

Pillsbury's Flour Mills have a capacity of 17,000 barrels a day.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Contractor's Death a Shock to a Large Circle of Friends.

FUNERAL OF EMIL SCHMIDT

Evans T. Morgan, of Minooka, Died Yesterday Morning After a Short Illness. New Boiler House at the North Works Being Erected.

Everybody was shocked when the announcement of the death of Emil Schmidt was seen in The Tribune yesterday morning. Just when the report was going around that he was recovering, his death came and removed from the business circle of the South Side one of the most prominent citizens.

Mr. Schmidt was 35 years of age and leaves a wife and five children. He prospered as a slate roof contractor and had always conducted a thriving business. He did not belong to any society other than the South Side board of trade. Two of his brothers, Charles and Ethelred, of San Antonio, Texas, were telegraphed for and have started to reach here in time for the funeral, which will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

Death of Evan T. Morgan.

Another death that has removed a prominent and respected citizen occurred yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, when Evan T. Morgan, of Minooka, passed away from this life. Mr. Morgan had been sick only since last Saturday, of typhoid pneumonia. His death is a sudden shock to a large number of friends, who had learned to respect the deceased as an upright and progressive citizen.

He was singled out by his fellow citizens several times for local political preference. He was justice of the peace of Lackawanna township for five years, and served two terms as school director. His widow and seven children, Mrs. John McFar, of Taylor, Albert E. John, Rachel, Jessie, Alice and Willie, survive him. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Forest Home cemetery, at Taylor.

South Side Jottings.

George Rosen and William Smith are hunting at Maplewood.

George Stegmiller, of Crown avenue, is seriously ill of typhoid fever.

S. S. Spruks is visiting in Buffalo and will return home on Monday.

Peter Haggerty, of Fig street, has announced himself as a candidate for select council.

William Meister has been employed as traveling salesman for Kormach's drug establishment.

The concert of the Royal Arcanum next Tuesday night at Fruehan's hall will be open to the public and all are invited.

The directors of the Scranton Axle works met yesterday and transacted regular business. Today they will inspect the works.

The marriage of Miss Lillie Dankewitz to Ulrich Warren was solemnized last night at the Prospect Avenue German Lutheran church by Rev. Edward Lange. A reception followed at Work-Ingen's hall.

On the flat ground along South Washington avenue opposite the large pump house the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company is erecting a large boiler house for the generation of steam to supply the North works.

An Evening with Lowell.

A very pleasant and instructive entertainment was given last evening in the lecture room of Elm Park church by the members of C. N. Lee's Bible class. An Evening with James Russell Lowell. The immense hall was almost filled with the class and their friends.
